1 firm and from the Maune Raichle firm and there couldn't be any 2 better. And I'm liaison counsel in the federal court before
3 Judge Wolfson where I am appointed to serve the court and all
4 the litigants nationwide and I've stood shoulder to shoulder
5 with every one in this front row and I think that's what 6 probably makes us unique, your Honor, that we are, we are the 7 firm that can bridge the gap. We have been on both sides not 8 just from afar, but deeply litigating both the ovarian cancer
9 cases and the mesothelioma cases. And we've been involved in 10 the Imerys bankruptcy, the DBMP bankruptcy. We understand the 11 issues and I think that I would be honored to be here and I
12 would make one promise to the Court.

13 I've heard a lot about statistics and the number of 14 claimants and I would just promise the Court that if appointed 15 to the Committee, along with Mr., to help Mr. McGovern, I will 16 never forget that statistics are people with the tears wiped 17 away.

18 Thank you.

19 THE COURT: Mr. Thompson?

20 MR. THOMPSON: Morning, your Honor. Glenn Thompson
21 again for Margaret Watson, who is a mesothelioma claimant who's 22 seeking appointment to the Committee. She's working with lead
23 counsel, Cooney & Conway out of Chicago, who is already 24 involved in the mass tort bankruptcies in this case in a few 25 different, or in this District in a few different cases.
